- (g) No fine may be imposed by any person other than employer, as defined in clause (e) of section 2 of the Act.
- (h) All fine realized may be credited to a common fund maintained for the staff as a whole.

Provided that the fund shall be applied only for the welfare of the employees of the establishment from which the fine has been realized.

- (iv) (a) Deductions under clause (ii) of sub-rule (2) may be made only on account of the absence of any employed person from the place or places where by the terms of his employment, he is required to work, such absence being for the whole or any part of the period during which he is so required to work.
- (b) The amount of such deductions shall, in no case, bear to the wages payable to the employed persons in respect of wage period for which the deductions are made a larger proportion than the period for which he is absent bears to the total period within such wage period during which, by the terms of his employment, he was required to work:

Provided that, if ten or more employed persons acting in concert absent themselves without due notice (that is to say without giving notice which is required under the terms of their contract of employment) and without reasonable cause such deduction from any such persons may include such amount not exceeding his wages for eight days as may be any such terms, be due to the employer in lieu of due notice.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause an employed person shall be deemed to be absent from the place where he is required to work is, although present in such place, he refuses in pursuance of a stay-in-strike or for any other cause which is not reasonable in the circumstances, to carry out his work.

- (c) No deduction for breach of contract shall be made from the wages of an employed person who is under the age of fifteen years or is a woman.
- (d) No deduction for breach of contract shall be made from the wages of an employed person unless.—
  - (i) there is a provision in writing forming part of the terms of contract of employment requiring him to give notice of the termination of his employment;
  - (ii) the period of his notice does not exceed one month or the wage period whichever is less.
  - (iii) the period of notice does not exceed the period of notice which the employer is required to give for the termination of the employment;
  - (iv) this rule has been displayed in Punjabi and Hindi at or near the main entrance of the establishment and has been so displayed for not less than one month before the commencement of the absence in respect of which the deduction is made and;
  - (v) a notice has been displayed at or near the main entrance of the establishment giving the names of the persons from whom the deduction is proposed to be made, the number of days in respect of which the wages are to be deducted and the conditions (if any) on which the deductions will be remitted;

Provided that where deduction is proposed to be made from all the persons employed in any department or section of the establishment, it shall be sufficient, in lieu of giving the names of the persons in such department or section to specify the departments or sections affected.

- (e) No deduction for breach of contract shall exceed the wages of the persons employed for the period by which the notice of termination of service falls short of the period of such notice required by the contract of employment.
- (f) If any conditions have been specified in the notice displayed under sub-clause (d) (v), no deduction for breach of contract shall be made from any person who has complied with these conditions.
- (v) Deductions under clause (iii) of sub-rule (2) shall not exceed the amount of the damage or loss caused to the employer by the neglect or default of the employed person.
- (vi) A deduction under clauses (iv) and (v) of sub-rule (2) shall not be made from the wages of the employed persons unless the house accommodation amenity or service has been accepted by him as a term of employment or otherwise and such deduction shall not exceed an amount equivalent to the values of the house accommodation amenity or service supplied.
- (vii) Deduction under clause (vi) of sub-rule (2) shall be subject to the following conditions, namely:-
  - (a) recovery of an advance of money given before the employment began shall be made from the first payment of wages in respect of a complete wage period, but no recovery shall be made of such advance given for travelling expenses;
  - (b) an advance of wages not already earned shall not without the previous permission of an Inspector, exceed an amount equivalent to the wages earned by the employed person during the preceding two calendar months, or if he has not been employed for that period, twice the wages he is likely to earn during the two subsequent calendar months.
  - (c) the advance may be recovered in instalments by deductions from wages. No instalment shall exceed one third or where the wages for any wage period are not more than twenty rupees, one fourth of the wages for the wage periods in respect of which deduction is made.
- (viii) All such fines imposed and deductions made and advances given shall be recorded in the registers maintained in forms I, II and II-A, respectively. These registers shall be kept at the work-spot and maintained up to date. Where no fine has been imposed or no deduction has been made from an employed person in any wage period, a 'nil entry shall be made in the relevant register at the end of the wage period, indicating also and in precise terms the wage period to which the 'nil' entry relates.

- (4-A) Every employer shall send annually a return in form III showing the deductions from wages so as to reach the Inspector not later than the 1st February following the end of the year to which it relates.
- (5) The amount of fine imposed under sub-rule (3) shall be utilized only for such purposes beneficial to the employees as are approved by the State Government.
- (6) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to the more favourable terms aforesaid.

22. Publicity to the minimum wage fixed under the Act.— Notices in Form IX-A containing the minimum wages of rates fixed together with abstracts of the Act, the rules made thereunder and the name and the address of the Inspector shall be displayed in Punjabi at the main entrance of the establishment and its office and shall be maintained in a clean and legible condition. Such notices shall also be displayed on the notice boards of all Sub-Divisional and District Offices.

23. Weekly day of rest.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee in a scheduled employment in respect of which minimum rates of wages have been fixed under the Act, shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as "the rest day") which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees in that scheduled employment:

Provided that the employee has worked in the scheduled employment under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector in this behalf.

Provided further that nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948, or any other Act for the time being in force.

Explanation.— For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule.—

- (a) any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work,
- (b) any day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947; and

- (c) any day on which the employee was on leave which was a holiday, with or without pay granted by the employer during the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day.

shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

- (2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work in a scheduled employment on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the three days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

- (3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

- (4) An employee shall be granted for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day and in case he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where the minimum daily rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Act has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty-six, or where the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, no wages for the rest day shall be payable, and in case the employee works on the rest day, he shall be paid only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate; and if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out as aforesaid, the Labour Commissioner may, on application made to him in this behalf decide the same after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate scheme, the wages for the rest day, or as the case may be, the rest day and the substituted rest day, shall be such as the Punjab Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, prescribe having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Act in respect of the scheduled employment.

Explanation.— In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) (omitted)

(6) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

24. Number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.— (1) The number of hours which shall constitute a normal day shall be:-

- (a) In case of an adult not more than 9 hours;
- (b) In case of a child not more than 4 and half hours

Provided that subject to the provisions of these rules no workers shall work for more than 48 hours in a week.

(2) The working day of an adult worker shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals for rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than 10 ½ hours on any day. The period of work on any day, in a scheduled employment, shall be so fixed that no continuous period of work shall exceed five hours and that no worker shall be required or allowed to work for more than five hours unless he has/had an interval for rest for at least half an hour on the expiry of the said four hours:

Provided that where the spread over under any other law is not more than twelve hours, the provisions, regarding lesser spread over shall be applicable.

(2-A) Working hours including overtime shall not exceed 10 hours in a day or 60 hours in a week, provided that the total overtime shall not exceed 50 hours in a period of three months.

(3) The number of hours of work in a case of an adolescent shall be the same as that of an adult or a child according as he is certified to work as an adult or child by a competent medical practitioner approved by the State Government. No adolescent or child shall be required or allowed to work on any plantation defined in section 2 (f) of the Plantation Labour Act, 1951, for more than 40 hours in any one week, and no child who has not completed his 12th year shall be required or allowed to work in any such plantation.

(4) The provisions of sub-rules (1) to (3) shall be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be notified by the State Government.

(5) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of Factories Act, 1948.

24-A. Night Shifts.— Where a worker in a scheduled employment works on a shift extends beyond midnight:

(a) a holiday for the whole day for the purposes of rule 23 shall in his case mean a period of 24 consecutive hours beginning from the time where his shift ends: and

(b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of 24 hours beginning from the time when such shift ends and the hours after the midnight during which such worker was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

25. Extra Wages for overtime.— (1) Where an employee in a an employment is governed by the provision of Factories Act or any other enactment prescribing extra wages for overtime, he shall receive overtime wages at the rates so prescribed.

(2) In cases not covered by sub-rule (1) when a worker works in an employment for more than the number of hours of work constituting a normal working day prescribed in rule 24, or for more than 48 hours a week, he shall in respect of overtime work be entitled to wages at double the ordinary rate of wages:

Provided that the Government on receipt of representations in respect of any scheduled employment or class or classes of employees in such employment, may after inviting public comments, notify any other rate of payment of extra wages for overtime in respect of any scheduled employment or class or classes of employees in such employment.

Explanation.— The expression 'ordinary rate of wages' means the basic wage plus such allowances including the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to the person employed of food-grains and other articles as the person employed is for the time being entitled to but does not include a bonus.

(3) A register of overtime shall be maintained by every employer in Form IV in which entries under the columns specified therein shall be made as and when overtime is worked in any establishment. The register shall be kept at the work-spot and maintained up-to-date. Where no overtime has been worked in any wage period, a 'nil' entry shall be made across the body of the register at the end of the wages period indicating also in precise terms the wage period to which the 'nil' entry relates.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948.

25-A. Part-time Employees.— Where an employee is employed on part-time basis, with one or more employers, and his minimum wages are fixed by the day, he shall be entitled to claim from each employer for whom he works in a given day for less than the normal working day, wages for the number of hours for which he works, on Pro rata basis.
