11. THE PUNJAB SHOPS AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENT, ACT, 1958

From
Sh P.N. Bhalla IAS
Labour Commissioner, Punjab

To

1. The Labour Officer, Patiala,
Jalandhar and Rohtak.
2. Deputy Chief Inspector of Shops,
Patiala, Jalandhar and Rohtak.
3. All Shops Inspectors in the State.

Dated Chandigarh, the 27th February, 1962

No. PSCA/1/7/14616-52—The present instructions are being issued for clarification of the instruction previously issued to you with endorsement No. S. A. 3/29/10107-10140, dated the 20th August, 1960 from the Chief Inspector of Shops on the subject noted above.

2. The legal position had been explained to you in earlier letter that the clerical staff working in a factory was not covered by the definition of a 'workers' given in clause (1) of Section 2 of the Factories Act, 1948 and that such Staff would be covered under the provisions of the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1958, 1958. It has come to notice that in pursuance of the legal position as explained above, you are insisting upon the registration as shops under the provisions of the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1958 of establishments attached to the factories in which the clerical staff is employed irrespective of the fact whether such clerical staff was being allowed by the managements concerned all the benefits provided for workers under the Factories Act, 1948 From the representations having been received from the various managements in this behalf that this action on your part is not in accordance with the provisions of the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, it has become necessary to further clarify the position in this respect.

3. A reference to the definition of "Shops" as given in clause (xxv) of section on 2(1) of the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act would show that this term "does not include a commercial establishments or a shop attached to a factory where the persons employed in a shop are allowed the benefits provided for worker under the Factories Act, 1948" Further clause (f) of Section 3 of the said Act lays down that this Act shall not apply to "any person whose hours of employment are regulated by or under the Factories Act, 1948".

Thus it would appear that although the clerical staff working in a factory are not "technically worker" as defined in the Factories Act and may be coverable under the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, yet the provisions of the later Act would not apply to such clerical staff employed in a shop or commercial establishments attached to a Factory if they are allowed by the managements the benefits, including regulation of working hours, provided for workers under the Factories Act, you are accordingly advised to bear this clarification in mind and take action as under—

(a) Where the clerical staff working in a shop or commercial establishment attached to a factory is being allowed the benefits including regulation of working hours, provided for workers under the Factories Act, such a shop or commercial establishment should not be considered registerable under the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act;

(b) Where such clerical staff mentioned in (a) above is not being allowed the benefits, including regulation of working hour provided for workers under the Factories Act, you should proceed to get is registered as a “shops” under the Punjab Shops and Commerical Establishments Act, failing which you may take legal action in the matter.

For Labour Commissioner, Punjab.
